Charter and By-Laws of the Rhode Island Society of the Sons of the American Revolution

Charter

Adopted February 22, 1894

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND, &C.

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

January Session, A. D. 1891

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE RHODE ISLAND SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

(Passed February 18, 1891.)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. W. Maxwell Greene, William W. Hoppin, William Goddard, Albert Gallatin Barton, E. Benjamin Andrews, Daniel B. Pond, and their associates and successors, are hereby made a corporation by the name of Rhode Island Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, for the purpose of cherishing and maintaining the Institutions of American freedom, and perpetuating the spirit and memory of the deeds of the patriots who achieved American independence, with all the powers and privileges, and subject to all the duties and liabilities, set forth in Chapter 152 of the Public Statutes, and in any acts in amendment thereof or in addition thereto.

SEC. 2. Said Corporation may take, hold, transmit and convey real and personal estate to an amount not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

ARTICLE I.

OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY.

The purposes of this Society are patriotic and social; to cherish and maintain among ourselves and our descendants and in the community the institutions of American freedom; to perpetuate the spirit and memory of the deeds of the patriots who achieved American Independence and who secured to us the blessings of liberty; to promote the fitting celebration of anniversaries commemorating the events connected with the War of the American Revolution; to collect and preserve documents and relics relating to said war; and to promote social intercourse and fellowship among its members now and hereafter.

ARTICLE II.

ELIGIBILITY.

Any man shall be eligible to membership in this Society who, being at least twenty-one years old and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor who was at all times unfailing in his loyalty to and rendered actual service in the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militiaman, or minuteman in the armed forces of the Continental Congress, or in any one of the several Colonies or States; or as a signer of the Declaration of Independence; or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence; or as a member of any Continental, Provincial, or Colonial Legislature; or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

All applications for membership in this Society shall be in duplicate, upon blank forms furnished by the Society, and each application shall be accompanied by the membership fee, which shall be returned if the applicant is not accepted. Such applications shall be submitted to the Registrar for examination and shall be reported by him to the Board of Managers. The applicant shall become a member of the Society when his application shall have been approved by the Board of Managers and by the Registrar General and when he shall have subscribed to the Charter and By-Laws.

ARTICLE IV.

FEES AND DUES.

The membership fee shall be one dollar and the yearly dues shall be two dollars and such assessments as the Society shall order from time to time, not exceeding the sum of three dollars for any one year. The payment of fifty dollars by a member at any one time shall constitute him a life member, and he shall thereafter be exempt from the payment of annual dues; and any amount so received shall be set aside and invested as a permanent fund, the income only to be used for such purposes as the Board of Managers shall determine. Annual dues shall be paid to the Secretary on or before the 22d day of February in each year, but members joining the Society during the last quarter of the year ending February 21, shall not be liable for the payment of dues for the year preceding. The Secretary shall notify any member nine months in arrears, and non-payment of dues within three months thereafter shall be regarded as terminating the membership of such person unless he shall present a satisfactory excuse acceptable to the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE V.

MEETINGS.

A meeting of the Society for the election of officers and other business shall be held annually in the city of Providence, on the 22d day of February at 12 o'clock, noon, at such place as may be designated by the Board of Managers. Upon the completion of such business as shall be appropriate to the annual meeting, it shall adjourn, and the adjourned meeting of the Society shall be held on the same day, or some other day, at a place which shall be provided by the Board of Managers, where a dinner shall be served, at which the retiring President shall preside. Included in the exercises attending the annual dinner shall be a toast, "To the Patriots of the American Revolution." Whenever the 22d of February shall fall on Sunday, the annual meeting shall be held on the following day.

The Society shall hold at least one meeting in each year for the purpose of celebrating some event in Revolutionary History, at such time and place and in such manner as may be determined by the Board of Managers. At any meeting of the Society a quorum shall consist of ten members.

Special meetings of the Society may be called by the President, and shall be called by him when directed so to do by the Board of Managers, or whenever so requested in writing by at least fifteen members. Thereupon the Secretary shall mail to each member a notice of such meeting and of the business to come before it, at least forty-eight hours before such meeting.

The following shall be the order of business at the annual meeting:

1. Reading and approving the record of the last annual meeting.
2. The President's annual address.
3. The Secretary's annual report.
4. The Treasurer's annual report.
5. The Registrar's annual report.
6. The reports of Committees.
7. The election of Officers, Delegates, and Alternates.
8. Unfinished business.
9. New business.

ARTICLE VI.

OFFICERS.

The officers of this Society shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Registrar, Historian, Chaplain, Poet and five members, which together with the Presidents of such Chapters as now are or hereafter may be organized, shall constitute the Board of Managers. These officers excepting the Presidents of Chapters shall be elected by ballot by a majority of the members voting at the annual meeting and they shall hold office for one year from the adjournment of such annual meeting, or until their successors are duly elected.

ARTICLE VII.

PRESIDENT.

The President, or, in his absence, the Vice-President, or, in the absence of both President and Vice-President, the Chairman pro tem. shall preside at all meetings of the Society and of the Board of Managers and shall have the casting vote. The presiding officer shall preserve order and shall decide all questions of order subject to appeal to the meeting. He shall present an address in writing at the annual meeting at the end of his term of office. The President and Vice-President shall not be eligible for re-election as their own successors. In the event of the absence or death of the President, the Vice-President shall perform all the duties prescribed for the office of President.

ARTICLE VIII.

SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall receive all money from the members and shall pay it over to the Treasurer, taking his receipt for the same. He shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society. He shall notify members of their election to membership and to office, and of such other matters as the Society may direct. He shall have charge of the seal and such records of the Society as are not herein given especially in charge to the other officers of the Society, and together with the presiding officer he shall certify all acts and orders of the Society. He shall, under the direction of the President or the presiding officer, give notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Society and of the Board of Managers and shall attend the same. He shall keep accurate reports of the meetings of the Society and of the Board of Managers. He shall give such notice of the votes, orders, and proceedings of the Society and of the Board of Managers as they shall direct, and he shall submit a report in writing at each annual meeting. As a guide to the Board of Managers in admitting new members, the Secretary shall make known to all members of the Society all applications for membership at least ten days before the meeting of the Board, when such applications shall be acted upon, and shall request all members to make known any reason for the non-acceptance of any application, stating that such communication shall be regarded as confidential.

ARTICLE IX.

TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall deposit all money received by him in bank in the name of the Society, and all money received for the Society shall be paid over to him monthly. He shall make payments therefrom only for the benefit of the Society, and in such sums as the Society or Board of Managers shall direct or upon the order of the Secretary countersigned by the President. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and disbursements, and at each annual meeting he shall make a full report to the Society. The books of the Secretary and Treasurer shall at all times be open to the inspection of the President and Board of Managers and Auditing Committee.

ARTICLE X.

REGISTRAR.

The Registrar shall examine all applications and proofs of membership and shall report his opinion thereon to the Board of Managers. He may return imperfect and incorrect applications to the applicant for completion or correction. He shall forward to the Registrar General one copy of such applications as have been approved by him and accepted by the Board of Managers, and he shall preserve one copy in the files in his office, making record of the same in a book prepared for that purpose; and from time to time he shall have the originals suitably bound for preservation. He shall have the custody of all the historical, geographical and genealogical books, papers, manuscripts, relics, etc., of which the Society may become possessed. He shall be authorized to deposit such books, papers, manuscripts, and relics as may be necessary for their proper safety and preservation in the Rhode Island Historical Society and he shall cause them to be marked, "The Property of the Rhode Island Society of the Sons of the American Revolution." He shall receive twenty-five cents for recording each accepted application, and he shall submit a report in writing at each annual meeting.

ARTICLE XI.

HISTORIAN.

The Historian shall keep a record of all facts in connection with this Society which he shall judge to be of historical value, and he shall deliver an address in writing at each annual dinner. The same person shall not be elected Historian for more than three consecutive years.

ARTICLE XII.

CHAPLAIN.

The Chaplain shall conduct such devotional and religious services as may be called for in the course of business or exercises of the Society.

ARTICLE XIII.

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

The Board of Managers shall consist of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Registrar, Historian, Chaplain, Poet, five persons elected upon the Board of Managers as provided in Article VI, and the Presidents of the local Chapters. The Board of Managers shall judge of the qualifications of the applicants for membership. They shall have control and management of the affairs of the Society. They shall appoint an Auditing Committee. They shall have power to fill all vacancies.

One of the objects of the Society being the collection and preservation of documents relating to the War of the American Revolution, it shall be the duty of the Board of Managers from time to time to provide for the publication of a volume under the general title: "Manual of the Rhode Island Society of the Sons of the American Revolution," which shall contain besides the yearly reports and proceedings of the Society, the names of members admitted from time to time, with an account of their ancestors' services in the Revolution, and such papers or documents as may be obtained by the Society outside of the Public Archives relating to the American Revolution; the cost of such manual to be paid by the Society.

The Board of Managers is hereby authorized from time to time to frame, adopt, and amend such Rules and Regulations, consistent with the Charter and By-Laws, as may be necessary in their conduct of the business of the Society. Such Rules and Regulations can only be amended upon proposal in writing at any meeting of the Board and adoption of such proposed amendment at a subsequent meeting thereof.

Regular meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held on the third Wednesday of January, April, July, and October of each year. Special meetings may be called by the President at any time, and shall be called upon the written request of any three members of the Board of Managers, or of any fifteen members of the Society. At all meetings of the Board of Managers three members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE XIV.

DELEGATES.

At each annual meeting there shall be elected by ballot one Delegate at large and alternate, and one Delegate and alternate for every fifty members or for a fraction of twenty-five or over, and an alternate for the President or Vice-President. These Delegates or alternates, if the Delegates are unable to act, together with such officers as are provided for by the Constitution of the National Society, shall represent this Society in the National Society.

At each annual meeting the Society may nominate one member for election, as Trustee, to represent this Society in the National Society as provided by Article V., Sec. 2, of the Constitution of said National Society.

ARTICLE XV.

SEAL.

The seal of the Society shall be two inches in diameter and shall represent a lighted beacon surmounting a hill enveloped by thirteen stars, the whole encircled by a band one-quarter of an inch wide, upon which shall appear the legend in raised letters: "Rhode Island Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, Organized Feb. 1, 1890." The words "Organized Feb. 1, 1890," being placed at the bottom of said band.

ARTICLE XVI.

CHAPTERS.

Ten members of this Society residing in any county, town, or city of this State may send a written request to the Board of Managers asking authority to associate as a Chapter of this Society in such county, town, or city, and the Board of Managers may grant such request.

Local Chapters shall be known as the ——— Chapter of the Rhode Island Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, No. ——. Each Chapter may have a President, Secretary, and Treasurer, and such officers as the By-Laws of the Chapter may determine. The President of each local Chapter shall be ex-officio, a member of the Board of Managers.

No person shall be admitted into a Chapter as a member until after his admission into the State Society, in the manner provided by the By-Laws of this Society, and until he has paid the annual dues and fees as provided by said By-Laws. And any member suspended or expelled, or in way losing his membership in the State Society, shall thereupon cease to be a member of the Chapter.

Each Chapter may make By-Laws, Rules and Regulations for its government, provided such By-Laws, Rules and Regulations do not conflict with the Charter and By-Laws of this Society, nor with the Constitution and By-Laws of the National Society.

Each Chapter by its Secretary shall send annually to the Secretary of the State Society a report in writing of its proceedings during the preceding year together with any suggestions it may deem pertinent to the welfare of the State organization.

ARTICLE XVII.

AMENDMENTS.

These By-Laws may be amended at any regular meeting of the Society or at any special meeting called for the purpose, provided that the proposed amendment or amendments shall be introduced at a previous regular or special meeting of the Society, and shall be approved by a majority of the members present, and provided, also, that ten days before the second meeting a copy of said proposed alterations and amendments shall be sent by the Secretary to each member of the Society.

"Poetical Version of the Capture of Prescott"

"'Twas on a dark and stormy night—
The wind and waves did roar—
Bold Barton then, with forty men,
Went down upon the shore.

"And in a whale-boat they set off
To Rhode Island fair,
To catch a redcoat General
Who then resided there.

"Through British fleets and guard-boats strong
They held their dangerous way,
Till they arrived unto their port,
And then did not delay.

"A tawny son of Afric's race
Them through the ravine led,
And entering then the Overing house,
They found him in his bed

"But to get in they had no means,
Except poor Cuffee's head,
Who beat the door down, then rushed in,
And seized him in his bed.

"'Stop! let me put my clothing on!'
The General then did pray;
"'Your clothing, massa, I will take;
For dress we cannot stay.'

"Then through rye stubble him they led,
With shoes and clothing none,
And placed him in their boat quite snug,
And from the shore were gone.

"Soon the alarm was sounded loud:
'The Yankees they have come,
And stolen Prescott from his bed,
And him have carried hum.'

"The drums were beat, sky-rockets flew,
The soldiers shouldered arms,
And marched around the grounds they knew,
Filled with most dire alarms.

"But through the fleet with muffled oars
They held their devious way,
And landed him on 'Gansett shores,
Where Britons held no sway.

"When unto land the captors came,
Where rescue there was none,
'A bold push this,' the General cried,
'Of prisoners I am one.'"
